

Prof. Jan De Groof (ed.)

Educational Policy in Russia and its Constitutional Aspects

TABLE OF CONTENTS

The authors	7
I. Foreword J. De Groof	9
II. The ‘Renaissance’ of Educational Rights in Russia: Conditions for a Common European House J. De Groof	13
III. Educational Reform in Russia E. Tkachenko	45
IV. The Challenge of Educational Reform in Russia V. Bolotov	57
V. Professionalism of Educational Workers as a Guarantee of High-standard Training of Graduates Z.P. Daschinskaja	65
VI. Will the New Constitution Protect Democracy and the Democratisation of Education in Russia? K. Malfliet	69
VII. Education and the New Constitution of the Russian Federation G. van den Berg	81
VIII. Educational Freedom in Russia C.L. Glenn	91
IX. The Bilateral Framework, Improving Educational Change L. van den Bossche	111

Annexes	115
X. Text of the Constitution (Translation G P. van den Berg)	117
XI. Statistics	151
Table of Contents	163